

Rule Committee of the Personal Injury Commission

RESOLUTION #8 of 2025

Pursuant to section 19(7) of the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020

On 10 December 2025, the Rule Committee of the Personal Injury Commission of New South Wales (Committee) resolved unanimously by 13 members voting out-of-session as follows:

1. To approve the latest Parliamentary Counsel Office draft (d03a) of amendments to the Personal Injury Commission Rules 2021 (Rules) to be amended due to the passage of the amendments made to the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 2005 (UCPR) to address the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) in legal proceedings and to make the rules as drafted without amendment for commencement on 1 January 2026.

The President voted for the resolution set out above.

Annexure:

- A. Draft Personal Injury Commission (Amendment No 4) Rule 2025

Dated 10 December 2025

BY THE RULE COMMITTEE

New South Wales

Personal Injury Commission (Amendment No 4) Rule 2025

under the

Personal Injury Commission Act 2020

The Personal Injury Commission Rule Committee has made the following rule of court under the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020.

JANET WAGSTAFF

Secretary of the Rule Committee

Explanatory note

The object of this rule is to amend the Personal Injury Commission Rules 2021 as follows—

- (a) to facilitate the operation of the Police Officer Support Scheme Division established by the Police Amendment (Police Officer Support Scheme) Act 2024,
- (b) to deal with the use of artificial intelligence in certain documents and in applicable proceedings,
- (c) to specify appropriate decision-makers in relation to the commencement of different applicable proceedings,
- (d) to amend the circumstances in which a decision-maker may extend the time within which certain applications may be made,
- (e) to make other minor amendments.

[3] Rules 33A and 33B

Insert after rule 33—

33A Use of generative artificial intelligence in written statements

- (1) Generative artificial intelligence must not be used to generate the content of a written statement, including by altering, embellishing, strengthening, diluting or rephrasing a person’s evidence.
- (2) Each written statement must include a statement that generative artificial intelligence was not used to generate the content of the written statement.
- (3) Generative artificial intelligence must not be used to generate the content of an annexure or exhibit to a written statement unless the annexure or exhibit includes a statement that generative artificial intelligence was used.
- (4) In this rule—
written statement means a written statement of evidence on which a party to applicable proceedings proposes to rely, but does not include an expert’s report to which rule 33B applies.

33B Use of generative artificial intelligence in certain expert’s reports

- (1) This rule applies to an expert’s report for applicable proceedings, including an expert’s report attached to a pre-filing statement for applicable proceedings.
- (2) Generative artificial intelligence must not be used to generate the content of the expert’s report unless—
 - (a) the report includes a statement that—
 - (i) generative artificial intelligence was used to generate the content of the report, and
 - (ii) the use of generative artificial intelligence complied with any procedural direction about the use of generative artificial intelligence, and
 - (b) the report identifies the following—
 - (i) the part of the report generated using generative artificial intelligence,

- (ii) the name and version of the generative artificial intelligence program used,
 - (iii) the date of the use, and
- (c) an attachment to the report identifies the prompts, script or data provided to the generative artificial intelligence program.
- (3) If generative artificial intelligence was not used to generate the content of the expert's report, the report must include a statement that generative artificial intelligence was not used to generate the content of the report.

[4] Rule 35 Expert witnesses

[25] Part 13, Division 13.2A

Insert after Division 13.2—

Division 13.2A Police officer support scheme dispute appeals to Commission

126A Application of division

- (1) This division applies in relation to a police officer support scheme dispute appeal.
- (2) For the Police Act 1990, section 199I(8), a decision is made about a dispute when the Commission issues a certificate under the Police Regulation 2015, clause 135U.

126B Application for police officer support scheme dispute appeal

- (1) An application for a police officer support scheme dispute appeal must—
 - (a) attach a copy of the certificate as to the determination of the dispute, given by the Commission to the appellant under Police Regulation 2015, clause 135U, and
 - (b) include or attach full details of—
 - (i) the grounds for and the arguments in support of the grounds for the appeal and, if necessary, arguments in support of leave to appeal an interlocutory decision, and
 - (ii) the amount of compensation alleged to be at issue on the appeal, and
 - (iii) whether the appeal has been made within the time provided by the Police Act 1990, section 199I(8), and Note— Rule 133A provides for an extension of the period of time during which an appeal under the Police Act 1990, section 199I may be made.
 - (iv) new evidence in relation to which leave is to be sought, by the appellant, in accordance with the Police Act 1990, section 199I(13), and

- (v) if the appellant wishes to object to the appeal being decided solely on the basis of the written application and written notice of opposition lodged—the reasons for the objection, and
 - (vi) an objective chronology of the key events leading up to the commencement of the proceedings, which is not limited to matters that assist the party preparing the chronology.
- (2) The appellant must, within 7 days of registration of the application, serve a sealed copy of the application, including attachments, on the other parties to the proceedings.

126C Notice of opposition

- (1) A party who seeks to oppose an application for a police officer support scheme dispute appeal must, within 28 days of being served with the application, lodge a notice of opposition.
- (2) The notice of opposition must include or attach full details of—
- (a) the grounds for and arguments in support of opposing the appeal and, if necessary, arguments in opposition to the granting of leave to appeal an interlocutory decision, and
 - (b) the amount of compensation alleged to be at issue in the appeal, and
 - (c) new evidence in relation to which leave is to be sought, by the party lodging the notice of opposition, in accordance with the Police Act 1990, section 199I(13), and
 - (d) if the party lodging the notice wishes to object to the appeal being decided solely on the basis of the written application and any written notice of opposition lodged—the reasons for the objection.
- (3) The party opposing the application must serve a sealed copy of the notice of opposition on the other parties.
- (4) The party opposing the application may lodge an alternative or supplementary chronology of key events to the chronology filed by the appellant.

126D Notice of contention

- (1) The respondent must file a notice of contention if the respondent—
- (a) wishes to contend that the decision to which the police officer support scheme dispute appeal relates should be affirmed on grounds other than the grounds relied on by the non-presidential member, and
 - (b) does not seek a discharge or variation of part of the decision.
- (2) The notice of contention must—
- (a) be lodged and a sealed copy served on the other parties to the proceedings at the same time as the notice of opposition in the proceedings is lodged and served, and
 - (b) state, briefly but specifically, the grounds relied on and submissions in support of the contention.

126E Reply to notice of opposition or notice of contention

Within 14 days of service of a notice of opposition or a notice of contention, the appellant may—

- (a) lodge submissions in reply to the notice of opposition or the notice of contention, and

- (b) serve a sealed copy of the submissions on the other parties.

126F Non-compliance with procedural requirements

- (1) The President may, as an alternative to refusing to accept, seal, issue or register a document for use in a police officer support scheme dispute appeal, give a direction to a party to rectify non-compliance with procedural requirements for the appeal.
- (2) The appeal must not proceed further until the President is satisfied the appeal is procedurally compliant.

[26] Rule 129 Applications for appeals and reviews

Omit “Act.” from rule 129(1)(d). Insert instead—

Act,

- (e) an appeal against a medical assessment under the Police Regulation 2015, clause 135ZB.
